15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

Krishna Chandra College under the University of Burdwan was established in the year 1897. It offers a diverse range of undergraduate programs across various disciplines, including Botany, Chemistry, Bengali, English, History, Political Science, Philosophy, Mathematics, Physics, Zoology, Education, Economics and Geography. The university emphasizes a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary approach in its curriculum, fostering a comprehensive understanding of subjects and their interconnectedness. In order to provide holistic academic growth among students, an Interdisciplinary curriculum has been proposed which gives freedom to the student to choose their preferred options from the range of programmes offered by the institution. Course Structures and Syllabi: The undergraduate programs are structured to provide both depth and breadth of knowledge. Each course comprises core subjects essential to the discipline and elective papers that allow students to explore related fields. This structure ensures that students gain specialized knowledge while appreciating the broader context of their studies.

- 1. Botany: The Botany program delves into plant biology, covering areas such as plant physiology, taxonomy, ecology, and genetics. Students engage in laboratory work and field studies, often integrating knowledge from chemistry and environmental science to understand plant processes and their ecological significance.
- 2. Chemistry: In the Chemistry program, students explore organic, inorganic, and physical chemistry. The curriculum emphasizes practical laboratory skills and theoretical knowledge, with applications in fields like biology (biochemistry), physics (physical chemistry), and environmental science (environmental chemistry).
- 3. Bengali and English: The language programs in Bengali and English encompass literature, linguistics, and cultural studies. Students analyze texts from various periods and genres, often incorporating perspectives from history, philosophy, and sociology to understand the cultural and historical contexts of literary works.
- 4. History and Political Science: Programs in History and Political Science examine societal developments, governance systems, and political theories. The interdisciplinary nature of these fields leads students to explore economics, sociology, and geography to comprehend the multifaceted aspects of historical events and political structures.
- 5. Philosophy: The Philosophy program encourages critical analysis of fundamental questions concerning existence, knowledge, and ethics. Students often engage with concepts from psychology, political science, and literature, fostering a well-rounded philosophical perspective. 6. Mathematics and Physics: In Mathematics and Physics, students study abstract theories and their practical applications. The curriculum often intersects with computer science (in areas like computational mathematics), engineering (applied physics), and economics (econometrics), highlighting the interdisciplinary applications of these disciplines. 7. Zoology: The Zoology program focuses on animal biology, including anatomy, physiology, genetics, and ecology. Fieldwork and laboratory research are integral components, with interdisciplinary connections to environmental science, chemistry, and geography to study wildlife conservation and habitat analysis. 8. Education: The Education program explores pedagogical theories, educational psychology, and curriculum development. Students examine sociological and philosophical foundations of education, integrating knowledge from various disciplines to understand and improve educational practices. 9. Geography: Geography students study physical landscapes, human societies, and the interactions between them. The curriculum includes aspects of environmental science, urban planning, and economics, reflecting the subject's inherently interdisciplinary nature.

16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):

According to National Education Policy 2020, Academic Bank of Credits (ABC) is a national level facility to promote the flexibility of curriculum framework and offers academic mobility of students so that they can verify the credits, store the credits, transfer or redeem such credits, and promote them as and when required. It is working on the principle of multiple entry-multiple exits as well as any-time, any-where, and any-level of learning. The institute concurs in principle with the ABC. The institute has uploaded all the information regarding ABC to the college website (<https://kccollege.ac.in/pageview.php?id=55>). The affiliating University of Burdwan has uploaded the certificates of UG Examination (Hons.: BAH & BCH & BSH) to the National Academic Depository. Students can download their certificates from Digi locker App by providing valid Registration Number, Roll Number and Examination Year. The affiliating university has appointed a Nodal Officer, National Academic Depository (Digi locker), The University of Burdwan.

17. Skill development:

Presently, the Institute don't have any mandatory formal vocational courses, soft skills and value education courses. We do agree that such courses are very much crucial to improve the employability of the students. However, the institute offers need based skill education for the students and also organized, workshops, training, seminars etc. The curriculum includes skill enhancement courses strengthening practical aspects of the subject. This year college has conducted two add-on courses and one Spoken English certificate course. To enrich academic-industry interaction, the experts of various fields are invited. Students are inspired to take up research and entrepreneurship through Star College Scheme sponsored by DBT, New Delhi and Technology Based Incubators-like initiatives taken by the government. The students are also given value-based education to inculcate life skills and human values for their holistic development.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

The college conducts various events and activities and takes initiatives promoting Indian knowledge system. To list a few: The college magazine encourages poetry and writings in Indian languages as well as regional art forms. Departments have sought to revive cultural assets like folk music for communicating affirmative messages in society. Almost all cultural activities are conducted by the local language (Bengali). All the teachers and non-teaching staff of the institute are well-versed with the local language (Bengali). The courses in the institute are delivered mostly bilingually. The college offers Bengali and Sanskrit as UG level Programmes. There are frequent celebrations of national and regional festivals and events, birthdays of national figures, yoga training, etc. Programs on philosophy of great Indian thinkers are also held to inspire youth.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

An Academic Calendar as per the University of Burdwan academic schedule, is prepared at the beginning of session. Faculty Members prepare paper-wise teaching plans and translates through lectures, presentations, power-point presentations, assignments, educational visits to various research institutions/places, using ICT (including internet facilities etc.), virtual classes (also used as a regular practice during covid-19 pandemic) and discussions. The institute has hoisted the programme outcomes (POs), programme specific outcomes (PSOs) and course outcome (COs) in the college website and communicated to the students by the respective teachers during orientation programmes at the very beginning of the course. The students are also encouraged to take up courses with a definite objective of developing skills or gaining knowledge so that they can complete the goal by the end of the course. The students are free to learn as per their choice under the CBCS framework. These outcomes are evaluated through internal assessment and semester-end examinations, seminars, workshops, projects and during their participation in different co-curricular activities.

20.Distance education/online education:

As an affiliated college under the University of Burdwan, presently we do not have the scope to offer any courses in an ODL Mode. No vocational courses are offered through ODL/blended mode. However, during the pandemic period, courses are delivered by the teachers using online platforms like Zoom/Google Meet, YouTube Video Lectures. The college also conducts a Distance Education PG programme affiliated to the Vidyasagar University in the six subjects Bengali, History, Political Science, English, Sanskrit, and Environment Science. Students are encouraged to use online platforms like YouTube, NPTEL, INFLIBNET etc. Students' feedbacks are taken online. The institute empowers the students with the usage of online tools and materials for learning. Webinars and e-workshops are organized periodically. Information exchange and collecting are done using collaborative platforms like Google Forms and Google Docs, Whatapps, Telegram etc. The institution has certain amenities, and our teachers are skilled in offering education in blended mode. However, ODL/online/blended learning requires much more funds for the further development of the ICT facilities and space constraints.

The University of Burdwan circulates an academic calendar before the beginning of the academic session. The academic calendar consists the information about the starting, dispersal of the classes, practical examination, theory examination and semester break. Apart from Academic Calendar provided by the University, our college prepares an Academic Calendar that reflects academic activities such as scheduled dates for Internal Assessments, conferences and other co-curricular activities etc. Each department engages in continuous internal evaluation (CIE), which is a routine practice. CIE is performed for theory papers through examinations, assignments, presentations, etc. University regulations state that the IA module has a 20% weighting and that the end-of-semester exam has an 80% weighting. Each student's IA marks are explicitly displayed to them before posting, and any discrepancies are resolved. In case of practicals, CIE is conducted while experiments are performed by the students through interaction, viva-voice etc.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners. In every class, students are divided into various groups depending on their level of understanding, interactions with teachers, background knowledge on a particular topic, questionanswer sessions, periodic assessments, etc. Departmental and Master Routines are also prepared in such a manner that the classes are equitably distributed among the teachers. The number of classes per teacher is so maintained that the syllabus can be covered as per the Academic Calendar. But still, all students cannot grasp the concept equally well within that time frame. To cope with these problems, teachers share with the students prepared notes either in WhatsApp group or Telegram. However, some students need extra care. So extra classes are arranged for them. Teachers from the different departments extend their support to the needy students through phone calls, telegram, email, and other social media apps to provide suggestions, whenever required. Toppers from each department in the University examinations are awarded prizes and Certificates to encourage a healthy competitive mindset among students. Online resources or study materials are accessible from the college website for each student to strengthen their knowledge on the subject. Students are encouraged to participate in conferences, seminars, and workshops to gain knowledge.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Internal Assessment is an integral part of the CBCS program. Since the entire process of these assessments is confidential, there is little scope to show the answer scripts to the students but individual weaknesses are solved through remedial classes.

1. Internal assessment schedule: The students are informed well in advance about the academic calendar, requirements of the exam, and tentative dates, and the question paper is prepared by the university examination format.

2. Modes of internal assessment: Offline assessment is used as per BU guidelines. Continuous assessment, End-of-unit tests, and midunit tests are conducted by teachers according to the requirements of the course. This includes written assignments that can be submitted to the respective departments, presentations by students, etc. Questions banks are available in the college library and students can access them through the BU website. The teachers ensure speedy evaluation and students are given feedback about their performance accordingly.

3. The college has set up an examination committee for the smooth functioning of exams. The committee follows the guidelines issued by the University of Burdwan. All exam-related procedural guidelines need to be followed by the teachers strictly.

4. If students have any grievances, then they can approach the Teacher directly. In case it doesn't get resolved, there is a provision to approach the grievance redresses committee.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

At the end of each semester, there is a final exam that is uniformly conducted for students across all the constituent colleges of Burdwan University. The Internal Assessment is conducted through Class Tests, Tutorials, Assignments, Projects and Presentations. All of these together constitute an integral part of Internal Examination which is carried out in a well-planned and systematic manner. The institution has a well-defined system in place to deal with examination-related grievances. The faculty addresses the rightful grievances of the students about the marks obtained in the internal assessment. The final Internal Assessment marks are reviewed by the Departments. In addition to that the College has a Grievance Redressal Cell. The Grievance Committee will meet as and when required depending on grievances received. Students can lodge their complaints in writing on any issue, including the internal evaluation process. Students even have the liberty to take up the issue to the Principal. The final settlement of any grievance shall be made within a reasonable period (normally not exceeding one month) by the principal after the recommendations are submitted to him by the Grievance Redressal Committee.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Our institute is deeply committed to maintaining cleanliness in its surroundings, recognizing the dual benefits it offers both in terms of aesthetics and the environment. Throughout the year, the institute undertakes various initiatives to educate our students about the importance of cleanliness. Every corner of our institute is equipped with multiple dustbins, each marked for specific waste types, facilitating the segregation of biodegradable and nonbiodegradable waste.

When it comes to handling hazardous chemicals, we have implemented a stringent policy to ensure safety. Solid chemical waste and liquid chemical waste are managed separately, with a dedicated approach for each. Glass materials, along with other solid waste, are carefully contained in a sealed container, which is only opened when disposing of waste. Once the container reaches capacity, the waste is responsibly transferred to a larger pit for safe disposal.

For liquid waste, our approach is twofold. First, we prioritize the reuse of liquid waste whenever possible, reducing unnecessary waste generation. When reuse is not feasible, we have a well-planned drainage system in place that directs the waste to a designated disposal pit in a segregated area. This comprehensive approach to waste management underscores our commitment to not only keeping our surroundings clean but also ensuring the responsible and sustainable handling of waste materials within our institute.

Our institute is committed to providing high-quality education to all students, regardless of their caste, creed, or gender. Our dedication to distinctiveness in our work sets us apart. A majority of our students hail from the surrounding villages, and we take pride in having a substantial number of female students. Many of our students come from economically disadvantaged backgrounds, and we strive to keep tuition fees and hostel costs affordable compared to other institutions in the district. Our primary aim is to empower our students with knowledge and inspire them to make meaningful contributions to society. We are steadily improving our infrastructure, including our ICT facilities, due to the support we have received under the strengthening component of DBT Star College Scheme. In addition to academic excellence, we prioritize the well-being of our students through special health-related seminars, workshops, and health check-up camps. Our institution values community engagement. Our faculty members, along with non-teaching staff and students, actively participate in social activities such as distributing clothes and food to economically disadvantaged villagers. We are also deeply committed to raising awareness about environmental issues within the local community. These efforts collectively contribute to our institutional distinctiveness.

Apart from Academic Calendar provided by the University, our college prepares an Academic Calendar that reflects academic activities such as scheduled dates for Internal Assessments, conferences and other co-curricular activities etc. Each department engages in continuous internal evaluation (CIE), which is a routine practice. CIE is performed for theory papers through examinations, assignments, presentations, etc. University regulations state that the IA module has a 20% weighting and that the end-of-semester exam has an 80% weighting. Each student's IA marks are explicitly displayed to them before posting, and any discrepancies are resolved. In case of practicals, CIE is conducted while experiments are performed by the students through interaction, viva-voice etc.

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners. In every class, students are divided into various groups depending on their level of understanding, interactions with teachers, background knowledge on a particular topic, questionanswer sessions, periodic assessments, etc. Departmental and Master Routines are also prepared in such a manner that the classes are equitably distributed among the teachers. The number of classes per teacher is so maintained that the syllabus can be covered as per the Academic Calendar. But still, all students cannot grasp the concept equally well within that time frame. To cope with these problems, teachers share with the students prepared notes either in WhatsApp group or Telegram. However, some students need extra care. So extra classes are arranged for them. Teachers from the different departments extend their support to the needy students through phone calls, telegram, email, and other social media apps to provide suggestions, whenever required. Toppers from each department in the University examinations are awarded prizes and Certificates to encourage a healthy competitive mindset among students. Online resources or study materials are accessible from the college website for each student to strengthen their knowledge on the subject. Students are encouraged to participate in conferences, seminars, and workshops to gain knowledge.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Our institute is deeply committed to maintaining cleanliness in its surroundings, recognizing the dual benefits it offers both in terms of aesthetics and the environment. Throughout the year, the institute undertakes various initiatives to educate our students about the importance of cleanliness. Every corner of our institute is equipped with multiple dustbins, each marked for specific waste types, facilitating the segregation of biodegradable and nonbiodegradable waste.

When it comes to handling hazardous chemicals, we have implemented a stringent policy to ensure safety. Solid chemical waste and liquid chemical waste are managed separately, with a dedicated approach for each. Glass materials, along with other solid waste, are carefully contained in a sealed container, which is only opened when disposing of waste. Once the container reaches capacity, the waste is responsibly transferred to a larger pit for safe disposal.

For liquid waste, our approach is twofold. First, we prioritize the reuse of liquid waste whenever possible, reducing unnecessary waste generation. When reuse is not feasible, we have a well-planned drainage system in place that directs the waste to a designated disposal pit in a segregated area. This comprehensive approach to waste management underscores our commitment to not only keeping our surroundings clean but also ensuring the responsible and sustainable handling of waste materials within our institute.
